ABOUT

DiskoStick is the pseudonym of a London-based DJ, broadcaster and producer with over thirty years of professional experience spanning live events, television, radio and music production.

Rooted in the golden era of disco and Philly soul - drawing on the classic catalogues of Chic, Sister Sledge, Kool & the Gang, Salsoul and beyond, reimagined through the contemporary rework culture of Dr Packer, Dimitri from Paris, Dave Lee and Sgt Slick - DiskoStick delivers musically intelligent, groove-focused sets that balance the warmth of the originals with a modern dancefloor sensibility. Expect the elegance of classic Philly alongside the joyful campness of Gloria Gaynor and ABBA: music that celebrates, connects and moves people.

DiskoStick performs with a consistent and established visual identity: a mirrored disco mask, formal tailoring, and an exposed human body. This signature was developed through the critically recognised DiscoExposed art project - exhibited at the London Contemporary Art

Show, and internationally with the ITSLIQUID Group - and is now the permanent brand identity of every DiskoStick performance. This visual identity is now a consistent part of DiskoStick performances.

VISUAL SIGNATURE & PERFORMANCE FORMATS

The DiskoStick visual identity consists of three elements that are always present: the mirrored mask, formal tailoring, and the exposed human body. This forms part of the DiskoStick identity, with formats adapted to suit different environments.

Three performance formats are available, agreed in advance to suit venue, audience and context:

- Contextual: Full visual signature, fully exposed. For clothing-optional, body-positive and arts-focused environments.
- Conceptual: Partial adaptation. Symbolic integrity retained while moderating direct exposure for threshold or mixed environments.
- Considered: Fully clothed. Mask and tailoring retained. Full musical performance. For mainstream venues, festival stages and selected brand contexts.

Every format delivers identical musical quality and professional presence. Prospective bookers are encouraged to discuss format openly from the outset - there are no surprises.

BROADCAST & PROFESSIONAL CREDENTIALS

A wider career spanning more than three decades has included:

- Television broadcast work across multiple productions and formats
  - Radio presenting and production, spanning commercial and specialist programming
  - Live event DJ work across venues, festivals and private engagements
  - Music production and studio work
  - Regular live broadcast via DiskoStick Uncovered, streaming twice weekly on X Live
  - Exhibition at the London Contemporary Art Show, and internationally with the ITSLIQUID Group (2026)

MUSIC

DiskoStick plays disco. Not as nostalgia, but as a living musical language that remains one of the most joyful, inclusive and dancefloor-functional forms ever created.

Sets draw from the rich heritage of 1970s and 1980s disco, Philly soul and Salsoul - Chic, Sister Sledge, Kool & the Gang, Gloria Gaynor, ABBA and the deeper cuts of the original era - brought into the present through the work of leading rework producers. The sound is warm, groove-focused and broadly accessible. It makes people dance. This musical identity is particularly well suited to clothing-optional, body-positive, LGBTQ+ celebratory and outdoor festival environments, where the emotional register of disco culture - joy, freedom, solidarity, defiant pleasure - aligns directly with the values of the event.
